✓ 30. [redacted] LIAISON [redacted] OGC, and I met with Tim Ingram and Richard Barnes, staff of the House Government Operations Subcommittee on Government Information and Individual Rights, and went over in detail the galley of the Subcommittee's report on the [redacted] case. 25X1 Ingram confirmed that he will remove [redacted] name. He also asked that [redacted] prepare a listing of the misleading statements and conclusions pointed out by [redacted] which he will take into consideration. He indicated that if the report is published, he would make appropriate editing to set the record straight. He feels that they will decide to publish since former Subcommittee staffer Robert Fink has a copy of the galley and reporter Les Whitten also has a copy [redacted] ago. Ingram was cooperative and expressed willingness to remove the gross distortions in the report. I informed Don Gregg, SA/DO/O, that [redacted] name was stricken from the report.
